

REDESIGN PACKAGES

Refresher Training, LLC offers several redesign packages to transform your existing presentations and materials into crisp reflections of your expertise, saving your valuable time and resources. Our redesign services can spice up the slide deck you've been using forever or work with you to craft a brand new one.

Based on your needs, our redesign treatments can:

- Redesign the PowerPoint template to focus the audience on the content: when they focus on your message, your impact is more powerful.
- Reduce the amount of text and bullet points on slides: today's audiences simply expect more from slides and presenters.
- Replace text with visuals to clearly represent concepts, information, and key messages visually: material that's easier to absorb leaves a lasting impression on your audience.

ADDITIONAL SERVICES

Refresher Training, LLC offers other training- and design-related services, too! If you don't see the kind of help you're looking for, just contact us and we'll work it out with you!

Training Programs

Our hands-on, interactive programs are delivered by a certified trainer and teach you how to design compelling presentations that heighten audience engagement. We offer live in-person and virtual programs from 1.5 hours to full-day workshops. See our Training Packages brochure for more info.

Design Consultations

We offer personalized, 1:1 coaching for designing or refreshing a specific PowerPoint presentation or set of presentation materials. We'll work with you to devise a customized plan filled with ideas for you to apply to your own stuff. These consultations are great for the do-it-yourselfer who just wants some guidance.

PowerPoint & Participant Guide Template Design

We can design or refresh clean, crisp PowerPoint templates that reflect your brand and direct the learner's eye that the slide content. We can also create templates for your participant guides and other presentation materials. Our templates ensure that your materials have a consistent look and save you countless hours and energy wasted on copying, pasting, and formatting.

Training/Session Handout Design

It's a huge no-no to let your PowerPoint slides serve double-duty as a handout! We can design handouts based on a presentation. We'll make your materials make your expertise look even better, and help you leave a positive lasting impression.

Transitioning to Live Virtual Presentations

Refresher Training, LLC can redesign your current presentations for use in webinars and virtual classrooms. We offer coaching to prepare you for a successful transition to virtual presentations and webinars, which save money and expand your reach.

"This is a great example of what I look for in a strategic partner - someone who willingly & proactively provides advice to make things easier, better, & more efficient for us without the primary focus being on making a buck."

~ Sardek Love, President, ICTS Corp.
